If you see them, please say "hi" to... Lisa Halbert and Glen Barker!

Lisa and Glen grew up in southern Indiana; Lisa in Paoli and Glen in French Lick. They both attended Indiana State University for their undergraduate degrees in education. Lisa's focus was special education and Glen's advanced mathematics and physics. Although traveling similar paths, they did not meet until introduced by a mutual friend while teaching in southeastern Indiana. Lisa and Glen enjoy traveling, reading, and volunteering for the Catholic Church both locally and nationally. Most important to them about their Catholic faith is the Eucharist. "We are blessed to witness a miracle every time we go to Mass!"

They have been volunteer coordinators for the NCYC (National Catholic Youth Conference) since 2013 and travel in even-numbered years to the event in Long Beach, CA. This volunteer opportunity led them to the 10th National Eucharistic Congress here in Indianapolis where they served as coordinators of clergy, including bishops, priests, and seminarians.

The couple came to St. Ann after visiting parishes in the area. At St. Ann, Lisa and Glen write and publish the weekly bulletin. Lisa serves as Liturgy Commission chair and both are members of the Arts and Environment Committee. Glen is an elected member of Parish Council and a welcome voice in Music Ministry, time permitting. "We feel coordinated efforts to bring various cultures into our committees and commissions is a very important 'next step' at St. Ann. The traditions are so rich and there is so much to share!" The pair are quick to acknowledge that "the number of volunteer hours clocked by St. Ann parishioners is INCREDIBLE. Not only does this benefit the parish, but also the community."

Cornhole Baseball

Another great night with friends at the ol' ball-park. The game was tight, just one run separating the two teams until the sixth inning. Then, the red team pulled away and never looked back. Pictures can be seen on the bulletin board!

Our next game is April 10.
Hope to see you there

*The Solemnity of the Annunciation
of the Lord—Conceptio Christi*

Celebrated on March 25th, the annunciation of the Lord commemorates the visit of the angle Gabriel to the Virgin Mary, at which time he informed her that she would be the Mother of the Son of God.

Her response: "May it be done to me according to your word."
