If you see them, please say "hi" to ... Charlotte and Ray Hudson!

Charlotte and Raymon Hudson celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in 2023. They met at the Red Barn Restaurant in Washington, Indiana in 1969 and married four years later. Charlotte grew up in Cannelburg, Indiana, where she and fellow-parishioner, Steve Kavanaugh attended the same church, made their First Communion, and graduated from high school together. Charlotte earned a Senior Degree in Accounting from Indiana Business College in Vincennes. She has held many accounting positions over the years, including 20 years at Capital Drilling and Sawing and 14 years at the VA Medical Center.

Ray served in the Army in both the Military Police and Chaparral Missiles Divisions. He later graduated from ITT in Evansville, Indiana with a degree in electronics and went on to work at Fairbanks Scales for 35 years. He and Charlotte are retired now and enjoy spending time on Dale Hollow Lake, their "happy/vacation place", with family and friends. They also enjoy riding their motorcycle with friends in their riding club.

Charlotte and Ray's two children, Christa and Jeff, attended All Saints Catholic School and graduated from Decatur Central High School. Christa resides with her husband, Brad, in Brownsburg and Jeff, with his wife, Abby, in Plainfield. There are four (grand)children of whom they are very proud: Bryce, Brooke, Kole, and Sophie.

Charlotte serves in Music Ministry, is a member of St. Vincent de Paul, cleans the church with her team, chairs the festival bake shop, and is an officer of the Ladies' Guild. Ray has worked with the mowing crew and volunteers at the festival. They enjoy playing Cornhole Baseball with the group at church.

"There is a lot of camaraderie here," says Charlotte of St. Ann parish. "We need to continue to grow the church so our youth can help take our places. Most importantly, everyone has to be involved to make it grow." Despite health challenges - which Charlotte did not mention, including currently battling cancer - her faith, positive attitude, and involvement at St. Ann are exemplary.
