What Is Going On At Mass?

This week we delve a little deeper into the "Our Father". What we first realize is that there are seven petitions within the Lord's Prayer. While so much could be said about each, Charles Belmonte gives us a brief overview of each one:

1. Hallowed be thy name. "It is not that we think to make God holy by our prayers; rather we are asking God that his name be made holy in us. We desire to give glory to God that he may be loved and feared by all; that his holiness, his goodness, and his wisdom may be acknowledged everywhere."
2. Thy kingdom come. "In the second petition, we desire that God may reign in everybody's will. We ask that we all may happily reach our destination in his Kingdom. We pray that the Kingdom promised to us by God will come, the kingdom won by Christ's Blood and passion."
3. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. "In the third petition, we pray that all men serve and obey God on earth as he is served by the angels in heaven; and that all may always avoid sin and do what is pleasing to God."
4. Give us this day our daily bread. "In the fourth petition, we ask for whatever is necessary for nourishment, clothing, and other temporal needs; for our daily food, which for a Christian means also the Body of Christ, and for the forgiveness of sins. Thus, we can understand this petition in a spiritual and in a literal sense."
5. Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. "Once we requested the needed sustenance from God's magnanimity, we ask him pardon for our sins. To be reminded that we are sinners and forced to ask forgiveness for our faults is prudent and sound."
6. Lead us not into temptation. "In the sixth petition, we ask God to keep us from falling into temptations. We should not trust our own strength; we should fear our malice and lack of constancy, lest these induce us to wander away from his grace and friendship."
7. Deliver us from evil. "In the seventh petition, we ask for deliverance from the evils which afflict us and may set us away from his fatherly love. We ask to be liberated from the guilt and punishment of sin, from all snares of the devil and the world set up against us."

There can be no doubt that this is the greatest prayer. Jesus himself gave it to us. It reveals our special relationship with God. It thoroughly covers many aspects of our lives. It prepares us with a healthy and real longing for union with God, through Holy Communion on earth and eternally in heaven! No wonder this prayer is found at the heart of the Mass!

THANK YOU

I would like to thank all the women of the parish that donated to the Ladies Guild Bake Sale!!! It was very successful, and you brought in $429.00 for the Guild.

I would also like to thank the parish for their support in purchasing the baked goods. Hopefully this will be a preview of what is to come.

Next month is the festival and there will many more goodies to enjoy. For those who baked, please consider baking again and more for the festival. For those who forgot or didn't have the time to bake, please consider showing us your culinary skills for the festival.

Thank you again for your support of the Ladies Guild and our parish.

The Tenth National Eucharistic Congress

More than fifty thousand Catholics attended this 5-day congress. Of the nearly nine hundred volunteers needed to support the event, eight were from St. Ann Parish. Those eight individuals clocked over five hundred working hours, giving of themselves and their talents to aid in the success of the occasion.

One of the most dramatic moments was the Eucharistic Procession from St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church, at the corner of Capitol and Georgia, to the Indiana War Memorial, south of Michigan Street via Meridian Street.

Now that the congress has concluded and the pilgrims have returned to their home towns the work of evangelization begins.

Christ calls each of us to share the Gospel with those around us; either by word, or deed. We are all called to action.

The time is now. "It is by giving of ourselves that we receive."

Gabriel Project

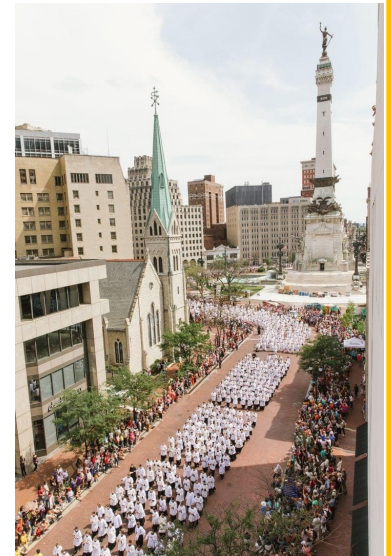

The Gabriel Project at St. Joseph's is in need of burp cloths, baby bottles, and sheets for pack-n-play. Donations may be dropped off in the narthex or contact Linda Kile: linda@goangels.org or 317-523-6467
