What Is Going On At Mass?

Our journey through the Eucharistic Prayer of the Mass is nearing completion as we examine some very special words prayed by the priest. This particular portion of the Eucharistic Prayer is known as the Doxology. This word comes from the Greek "doxa", which means "glory." The glossary of our Catechism defines doxology as a "Christian prayer which gives praise and glory to God, often in a special way to the three divine persons of the Trinity." There are many doxologies found throughout our tradition: The Gloria can be referred to as the "Greater Doxology" and the Glory Be the "Lesser Doxology"

As for the doxology of the Eucharistic Prayer, the priest raises the chalice and paten above the altar, and sings: "Through him, and with him, and in him, O God, almighty Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is yours, for ever and ever." These words of praise, addressed to the Father, summarize well the reality of what has just taken place: the sacrificial offering of the Son to the Father through the Holy Spirit."

This is truly a special moment where we should feel an overlapping mix of unworthiness and joy. Jesus, truly present in the Eucharist, elevated above the altar, being offered to the Father at this moment in the Mass. This elevation should remind us of Jesus, the One who loves us perfectly, lifted up on the Cross, sacrificing everything in love for us.

Charles Belmonte breaks down the words of this doxology, highlighting the ways we are invited into this moment through Jesus.

"Through him: Through Jesus' meditation, we have access to God.

With him: We are children of God, through the adoption Christ merited for us.

In him: There is one and the same life in him and in us.

In the unity of the Holy Spirit: The Church is a unity brought together by the Holy Spirit.

He joins us together as believers and gives us the life of grace by which we become children of God. He dwells in us, enabling us to offer the sacrifice of praise to God, together with the entire Church."

This moment of the Mass brings us to the great culmination of the Eucharistic Prayer and the one perfect sacrifice of Jesus. As some saints have reminded us, in a very real way we are joined with the angels and saints in the heavenly liturgy. As Jesus is offered to the Father through the Holy Spirit, it seems that all of creation should burst forth together in praise and joy. How can we hold back in the midst of such a wonderful gift? At this moment of the Mass, we cannot. We respond in praise to God with the Great Amen!

A Special Word to Those Who Have Had an Abortion ...

*Do not give in to discouragement and do not lose hope....
If you have not already done so, give yourselves over with humility and trust to repentance. The Father of mercies is ready to give you his forgiveness and his peace ...
